“ My Papi was a very talented man. He was amazing when it came to photography and painting. He always said, "Who's my girl?" or "Who loves you?" everytime he would see me. I loved that man and I hope he rests in peace.

“ My Uncle Tony Benages was so good to me. My dad was raising us 6 kids on his own and in the summers we would spend time with our Abuela (Beba) or my Uncle Tony and Aunt Pat. I was always missing my dad...crying in the back seat as Uncle Tiny drove down the road. Instead of yelling at me he pulled the car over, took me out, and just talked to me. He just wanted me to know they loved me and he would take care of me. I will remember that day as long as I live and I will always love you Uncle Tony!

“ Nearly 40 years ago when soccer was virtually unknown in the USA Tony taught many of us to love this sport. We had many good times on and off the pitch. We used to call Tony the bionic man because of all the braces he would wear while playing. Those were some terrific times.
