“ I met Patrick when I joined the Art Association of Madison County. He was a wonderful person, spectacular artist and a good friend to all who knew him. He shared his paintings with everyone and his shared love of wildlife made me smile every time I saw one of his birds. He will be missed terribly.

“ I met Patrick when I became the director at the Arts Depot in 2012. He was consistently a winner in every show. His plein air paintings were spectacular. His mastery of oils & a pallet knife was magical. Lynn, IN used his painting for banners in Main Street. His painting of the Carlos elevator sold immediately. He always brought me a homemade heart-shaped pastry after the annual art show. What a lovely soul. He will be missed.

“ Patrick was such a special person. His smile, laughter and kind spirit made us all love him. I always had such fun painting with him and will treasure his painting. Even the Moaning Lisa who is on display every year at our Jackolantern will have a special place this year. Rest peacefully dear friend.

“Pat was one of my first friends when we moved to Indiana for 8 years. What a super friend and painting buddy. I live back in Colorado now, and I treasure the couple of his paintings he gave me. This is a significant loss for Michael and I so wish I could come to the celebration of Patrick’s life just to give Michael a hug. I will be there is in spirit!

“ I met Pat when we both worked at Pay Less in the advertising department. Pat was one of the kind. When the boss was away. We jacked up the Michael Jackson songs and watched Pat dance on the filing cabinets. He could really do the moonwalk like no one else we lost touch after I left Pay Less. Sorry to hear of his passing. RIP Pat
Prayers for the family

I'm going to miss my friend Pat so much. We painted together many times and he was so much fun to be with. I loved his paintings and loved his wit. He was a great cook too. I can't believe he is gone, what a loss to the art world .
I send love and wish comfort to his family.
Thank you Pat for being in my life.

“ Pat and I met in art class when we were in elementary school. Our classes were in the teacher's basement. We didn't realize it then, but it had a Bohemian feel to it. Pat took it onto himself to teach me the color wheel and how colors blended together to create different looks. This was in elementary school! I knew Pat would have a career as an artist. We continued to cross paths through high school (class of '73) and then through PayLess. I have fond memories of Pat. I am honored to have known him. Prayers to his entire family - this is heaven's gain, our loss. Blessings
