

Joy Lynn Kaiser

August 8, 1947 - July 1, 2026

HELLO!!!! Joy “Dewey” Lynn Kaiser, 78, originally from Indianapolis but uprooted (with love) by her daughter to Anderson, danced her way to heaven on July 1, 2026, after an unexpected illness. She was born on August 8, 1947, in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Joy proudly graduated from Howe High School and the University of Indianapolis.

She was known for her love of children so it's no surprise she retired as a social worker for DCS of Marion County and had previously been a school bus driver for Warren Twp schools. She was also known for her love for Robert Redford and wanted to come back as the top sail of a sailboat.

Joy is survived by her daughter, Wendy (Jason) Hines; grandchildren, Joseph Haas-Kaiser, Haley Kaiser, Matthew Hines, I. J. Hines, Landon Hines, and Gavin Hines; sister, Patricia Garrity; and many chosen kids and grandchildren

. She will be terribly missed by her beloved lap dogs, Jorge, Millie, Roe, Mako, BB, Chunky, August, and Runtly; and her extremely loud cat, T'challa.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Joseph and Elsie (Moore) Solenberg, and son, Wesley Kaiser.

Local arrangements are being handled by Loose Funeral Homes and Crematory with a Celebration of Life service at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington Street, Indianapolis, IN 46229. Visitation will be Monday, July 6th from 2- 6 pm with a service at 4 pm. Please come share your memories and stories.

Memorial contributions may be made to your favorite pet charity or college scholarship fund

“My heartfelt sympathies go out to you all during this incredibly sorrowful time. The news of Joy Lynn's passing has deeply saddened me, and indeed, we have lost a truly radiant spirit whose very name perfectly captured the essence of the happiness and warmth she brought into every life she touched.

I will forever cherish the vivid memory of my first encounter with her, specifically the moment I stepped into her wonderful sewing room. It was more than just a room; it was a vibrant haven of creativity, teeming with colorful fabrics, spools of thread. The incredible handmade items she meticulously crafted were not merely products of skill, but tangible expressions of her generous heart and meticulous dedication. Each stitch seemed to carry a piece of her soul, reflecting the immense care and artistry she poured into everything she created.

She had a unique way of bringing beauty and comfort into the world through her hands, and that image of her surrounded by her cherished projects, beaming with quiet pride and passion, is something I will always hold dear. Joy Lynn leaves behind a legacy of warmth, creativity, and the indelible mark of her kindness. She will be profoundly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.
