“ I am Jennifer, Michael's daughter from his marriage to Betty Soverns. I never met him, but I have wondered if my children share a family resemblance with him. My newborn son, Silas, was born the day Michael died. I am sorry for your family's loss and I pray that God will bless you abundantly with faith and comfort. “ Mr. Weaver was such an awesome man. He made so many people laugh and enjoy their time at steak n' shake, whether stuck working or as a customer. I always looked forward to working with him and hearing "that's what the girl said last night" every five minutes. It is rare to find a person like him, and I am glad I was lucky enough to spend so many third shifts at what would have been a boring job, but when Weave was working it was anything but dull. I miss Weaver and his little mustache, he was one of a kind.
