“ Bob was like an Uncle that we Loved to hear his stories. He told us about opening a laundry softener packet and spilling it on another woman, going through a car wash and the car door was not closed all the way, and many others. his reenactments were as good as the words he spoke. He was definitely one of the best story tellers I have ever heard. He will missed by many.

“ It was always entertaining when Bob was around, Not sure which he enjoyed the most euchre or boxing, but he was "the greatest of all time" !! He will be missed that for sure.

Rusty & Karol Jack - October 03, 2017 at 09:57 PM

“ My dad and Bob were best friends, so our families grew up together. I will always remember how much he liked playing euchre and how much he loved winning! He often would squeal with delight: "Damn I'm good!!"
