“ I served with Steve in Combined Action Company Oscar, 2nd platoon, in 1967-68. Steve participated in patrols, ambushes, and other operations as well as helping to train our native counterparts, guard the local people, and assist in civic action work in this unique "hearts and minds" program.

Steve was one of the defenders of O-2 during the massive assaults on 21 January 1968 (See CAC Oscar History), and was later on FOB 3 during the early days of the Siege. He was supposed to fly out on his birthday (Feb 5) but his plane was either hit by shell-fire or crashed on landing, so he left a little later.

Those of us who knew Steve in Vietnam remember him as a good man and a good Marine, dependable, reliable, capable and steady. He will be missed.
