“ Dearest family of Tommy
I have known him much of my childhood. We spent hours together playing games and chatting. Tommy was the sweetest nicest kid I knew. Our families were friends almost like real relatives to each other. I always considered him my cousin. As we grew up we drifted apart. My heart is saddened by how difficult life has been for Tommy with the loss of his wife and then his own illness. Blessings to his family and children. Sending you all my love over the miles.
